June 2021

For those New Members who have not attended a theatre show before. I usually organise lunch before the show at a nearby restaurant, hotel or café. It is a good way to meet other solo traveller members and make new friends.

The Wedding Singer

This show has been postponed to a later date and time which will be announced after the restrictions have been lifted. Keep your tickets as I believe you will be able to use at the new date. If you can't attend on the new date they will refund the price of the ticket, I believe.

At the State Theatre in Sydney CBD

Cost $109.00 – seniors

Robbie Hart is New Jersey's number one wedding singer and the life of the party. That is until his own fiancée strands him at the altar. Bitter and broken, Robbie begins to make every wedding as disastrous as his own until a warm-hearted waitress named Julia intervenes. Only trouble is, Julia's about to be—you guessed it—married! Can Robbie pull off the performance of the decade and win the girl of his dreams?

Miss Saigon

This show has been postponed to a later date and time which will be announced after the restrictions have been lifted. Keep your tickets as I believe you will be able to use at the new date. If you can't attend on the new date they will refund the price of the ticket, I believe.

Price: $70 for seniors

Broadway's 13th longest running musical of all time, Miss Saigon is a tragedy of passion and beauty. It has been called of the most stunning theatrical spectacles of all time. Nominated for an incredible number of Olivier, Tony and Drama Desk Awards, the show is the second massively successful offering from the creators of Les Misérables.

In the turmoil of the Vietnam War, Chris, an American soldier, and Kim, a Vietnamese girl, fall in love and marry but are distressingly separated when Saigon falls. As years pass, Chris, unable to contact Kim, remarries and attempts to move on with his life. Kim, however, gives birth to Chris' son and waits faithfully for Chris' return. When circumstances bring Chris back to Vietnam, he learns the truth but, before he is able to speak with Kim, she takes her own life to ensure that their son will be taken back to America with his father.

Miss Saigon is an epic, daring musical that is universal in its emotional power and thought provoking in the underlying story. The sung-through, pop-inflected score of Miss Saigon is as powerful as it is moving allowing the audiences to feel and experience the raw emotion of the musical and its story.

The theatre is a short walk from Chatswood Station or it has parking underneath the theatre.

Merrily We Roll Along

Based on the original play by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart, Music and Lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, Book by George Furth

Director Dean Bryant

Choreographer Andrew Hallsworth

Merrily We Roll Along is the heartbreaker of Sondheim musicals, looking at how the best of friends lose their way as they get to win at life. We follow a trio of friends – Franklin Shepard, a composer; Charley Kringas, his writing partner lyricist; and Mary Flynn, an upcoming novelist. All three are primed to change the world through words and music. However, success has a way of opening doors that take them further away from what – and who – they love. Famously told in reverse, Merrily We Roll Along is an emotional detective story that investigates how grown-up sell outs are forged from wide-eyed poets.
